1. The range of weights for each steer group will be determined by a sort of the weights of the entered animals. Based on this sort, entries will be divided into equal weight groups (light, intermediate, medium, light heavy and heavy, etc.).
2. The minimum weight of the lightest group will be 800 lbs.
3. Only 2 animals per class, per exhibitor, will be allowed after final wt./class breaks are made.

Grand Champion and Reserve Champion Steer will be named.

A Supreme Champion (Best of Show) will be selected from all Grand Champion Animals.

TRAVIS KILMER MEMORIAL AWARD

Travis was enrolled as a 4-H member in the Country Cousins 4-H club for eleven years. He was an active member, participating in various projects. Travis started showing his families herd of Longhorns at the Delaware County Fair at the age of 14 and he continued showing beef for five more years. As a tribute to Travis, his family has set up a fund to encourage youth to show cattle and to gain the knowledge and love of beef as Travis did.

Two $100 savings bonds (face value) will be awarded to two 4-H beef exhibitors as follows:

- $100 savings bond (face value) for the first place novice fitting & showmanship exhibitor, and
- $100 savings bond (face value) for the first place senior fitting & showmanship exhibitor, with this being their first time showing as a senior showman.

MATTHEW TWEEDIE SPORTSMANS AWARD

Matt was an active 4-Her and CCE Summer Assistant. His passion was showing his beef at the fair. He was a tremendous sportsman and a believer in sharing his knowledge with others. Matt helped numerous people during his life learn more, do more, and do better than they otherwise would have. To honor him, his family and friends have set up a fund to encourage showmanship at the fair to exhibit the good sportsmanship that Matt did.

A plaque award will be given to the youth exhibitor in each market class specie area (beef, swine, sheep, and meat goat) who displays the qualities most inherent in a good sportsman. These qualities include:

1. Trying your best and trying to improve.
2. Being respectful of yourself, your fellow exhibitors, and the event by following the rules.
3. Being gracious in winning or losing.
4. Willingness to help others to improve themselves as an exhibitor and producer.
5. Displaying the qualities of good herdsmanship by keeping your area clean, organized, and attractive.
6. Promoting your specie by willingly and knowledgeably sharing information with others.

 Note: All Auction Rules must be followed. Violation will result in elimination from the auction.
